Editorial Review

Review

"... Firedancer accomplishes a great deal. It encourages. It helps peel away excuses.

And it motivates us to embrace our dreams, no matter how far-fetched. Chapter 14, "Emotions, Roadblocks and Obstacles," addresses a particularly important issue: fear--of competition, of failure, of not making enough money. "By shifting our thinking into flowing energy that will come to us in abundance and flow to others in abundance," Guildner writes, "we set free the clutching grasp of scarcity mindset." Readers open to New Age thought, and who simply want to reclaim childhood pastimes that once made them feel happy and whole, will enjoy Firedancer. And those who feel empty and lost will find comfort in Guildner's words: "Your gift is meant to matter, and ... there are people who need your gift. Who are you to withhold this gift from the world?"
