From the Back Cover

Kids will enjoy seeing their favorite characters in an all new VeggieTale that helps them to remember that God made everyone special.

When eight year old Prince Junior is suddenly anointed King, he realizes the entire kingdom is filled with very grumpy veggies—except for one. Larry the Lamp-Lighter is cheerful, polite, and full of encouragement. But how can this young king help his entire kingdom to face each day with a cheerful heart?

King Junior decides that people must learn to use the gifts God has given them to help rid their lives of grumpiness—so he challenges them with solving a riddle and demands that everyone present their solution at a royal banquet. But this makes the people even grumpier—until Larry the Lamp-Lighter helps everyone realize how God made them special. This beautifully illustrated book will help kids discover that God has blessed everyone in a special way as it encourages us to use those gifts to serve others.
