Like in previous works of the author, he directly faces the problem, points out the current malpractice, which seems bold, hot, and pricked. He uses the truth in the Bible as before and never hurts the feeling of readers. Gentlemen, if you really are tired of your damned past and determine to assume responsibility in marriage, then this book is for you. But do not expect that the author will fulfill your taste. The content is sincere and true, which will make you feel upset and even you are unwilling to let your wife see the words in the book. Like to help those women to practice their role as wife, it is to help men understand how to be the leader of fulfilling the Gods will.
