Editorial Review

Review

Russ Tobin is a genuine original by a first rate story teller. -- Brian Forbes, Film Director

From the Publisher

Life does have its hilarious side, and this is what Stanley Morgan brings out in the Tobin series. And judging from the fans' immediate reactions, Stanley has excelled this time. If you have not yet read a Tobin, then Tobin Goes Cuckoo is a great place to start.

There are several levels of humour in the book and above all a 'real life' angle. Talk to Stanley and you can hear of readers who have written to him to let him know how Tobin's attitude to life affected them and changed theirs. Not a bad achievement for a fictional figure.

We have appreciated working with Stanley Morgan on this latest story in the Tobin series and are pleased to present it to you, the readers - laugh out loud and enjoy.

About the Author

Stanley Morgan is a best-selling author whose books have been enjoyed by countless millions around the world. Through his writing, Stanley created his own phenomenon: RUSS TOBIN. Tobin's eighteen adventures have become the most popular and widely read of the Stanley Morgan books. So now, by reader-demand, comes the nineteenth hilarious escapade: TOBIN GOES CUCKOO. But what about the Stanley Morgan story? Perhaps not quite as hilarious as the Tobin stories, but equally varied. Stanley is an inveterate world-traveller, who studied radio drama in Canada, stagecraft in Southern Rhodesia, and then returned to London to become a leading voice-over artist in television commercials. Hearing his voice will set off a familiar (Proustian) jingle in many of us.
