Editorial Review

From Publishers Weekly

The Big Girls Book Club (whose members must be at least a size 14) is back, but it doesn't play a significant role in Weber's wild follow-up to Something on the Side, updating Egypt Robinson's travails with hubby Rashad and her sister, Isis Connors. Egypt's begun a BGBC chapter in Richmond, Virginia, where she and Rashad, a hedge fund manager, are clearly living large. They're currently sharing their lavish estate with Isis who, after attempting suicide, is still nursing a secret love for Rashad (her boyfriend before he married Egypt) and her married New York lover, Tony. After Egypt learns she's unable to carry a baby to term, she asks Isis to be her surrogate, despite her past with Rashad. Isis agrees but difficulties ensue when the paternity of the baby she's delivered comes into question. Jerome, a gay BGBC member who interferes with the marriage of his BGBC friend Loraine Farrow, and a journo stalker who looks like George Clooney, add to the mix. Weber's in top form with this fast-paced and oh-so-zany soap opera.

Sibling rivalry can escalate to open hostility, especially if your sister has married your rich ex-fiancé. But somehow, Isis and Egypt manage to get along. In fact, together they've founded a unique book club, The Big Girls Book Club, where members have to be at least a size 14. Egypt moves into Rashid and Isis' mansion, but the arrangement starts to go south when Egypt realizes her feelings for Rashid, with whom she was involved for 10 years, haven't completely died. Popular author Weber (The Preacher's Son, 2005; Up to No Good, 2009) fills his books with lifelike characters—flawed, confused, frustrated, and sometimes plus-sized. His latest is perfect for readers looking for an emotion-filled human drama, and Big Girls Do Cry will be a welcome addition to any library's African American fiction collection. --Shelley Mosley

People live in this new day time of lifestyle always aim to and must have the extra time or they will get large amount of stress from both everyday life and work. So , once we ask do people have time, we will say absolutely of course. People is human not really a robot. Then we ask again, what kind of activity have you got when the spare time coming to a person of course your answer will probably unlimited right. Then ever try this one, reading books. It can be your alternative in spending your spare time, typically the book you have read is usually Big Girls Do Cry.

Daniel Martin:

As a student exactly feel bored for you to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's heart or real their pastime. They just do what the professor want, like asked to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring and also can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Big Girls Do Cry can make you truly feel more interested to read.
