"Indispensable guide to the Western."--Douglas Pye

From the Back Cover

When first published in 1969, Horizons West was immediately recognised as the definitive critical account of the Western film and some of its key directors.

This greatly expanded new edition now provides definitive critical analysis of the six greatest film-makers of the Western genre: John Ford, Anthony Mann, Budd Boetticher, Sam Peckinpah, Sergio Leone and Clint Eastwood. And it offers illuminating accounts of such classic Westerns as The Searchers, Pat Garrett and Billy the Kid, Once Upon a Time in the West, Shane and many more.

Among the completely new material in this edition is Kitses's magisterial account of the work of the greatest of Western directors, John Ford. Kitses also assesses how the Western has been challenged by revisionist historical accounts of the West and the Western, and by movements such as feminism, postmodernism, multiculturalism, and psychoanalysis.

The product of a lifetime's labour and love, Horizons West is a landmark of scholarship and interpretation devoted to, what it for many, Hollywood's signature genre. It provides a compelling account of the powerful mythology of America's past as forged by Western films and the men who made them.

About the Author

JIM KITSES is Professor of Cinema, San Francisco State University. He is the author of Gun Crazy (1994) and co-editor of The Western Reader (1998).
