The Cheat - Mystery, Thriller & Suspense Book 1 - The Cheat (A crime and suspense novel, Humorous books): A Cheat Learns that Cheating Can Sometimes Turn ... crime novel (A tale of lies and Infidelity) By Eve Rabi

Gabriel is a high-powered attorney with a beautiful wife and two adorable children. He has achieved success in record time, carved a name for himself in the legal arena, and can finally enjoy the fruits of his labour. There is just one problem; Gabriel is bored of ...every bloody thing.

While on a business trip to Vegas (Business in Vegas? Yeah right.) he encounters the blonde and voluptuous Sinead. Not only is she sexy, but she is uninhibited and totally unrestrained – everything his wife isn't. Best of all, she asks no questions. Just the tonic he needs. Without further thought, he cheats on his wife, then parts ways with the mysterious, but unforgettable Sinead.

What happens in Vegas stays in Vegas, right? WRONG!

Back home, waiting at the airport to pick him up is his wife with their two children. He frowns at the sight of her pink cardigan, her ponytail and her mommy jeans. In fact, he feels ashamed downright embarrassed to call her his wife.

He's just about to walk up to his family, when Sinead appears. With a sexy smile, she beckons him over. He saunters over, prepared to sneak in one last kiss.

He's in for the shock of his life. What Sinead whispers in his ear wipes the smile off his face. Right then and there, his life starts to unravel and results in this crime-fuelled, drama-laden, dark comedy and mystery thriller.

If you enjoy fast-paced, humorous crime and suspense thrillers with heartbreak and heart-warming moments, you will love this book, which is free on Kindle Unlimited.

Be prepared to laugh, cry and neglect everything and everyone around you when you pick up this book.

This is Book 1 in the Tales of Lies and Infidelity Series.

Book Two of The Cheat, The Aftermath of Cheating is available for sale on

From the Inside Flap

Excerpt:

I stood stunned, just looking at them, hoping I was drunk or stoned and hallucinating. But, someone was moving out and it wasn't me.

"Angel? Angelina!" I yelled, dumping the flowers and chocolates, darting through the rooms, searching for my wife.

She was in the kid's rooms, packing clothes. She glanced briefly at me and then carried on packing, her face tear-stained and blotchy.

"What are you doing, Angelina?" I demanded, grabbing her hands.

"What does it look like, Gabriel? I'm leaving. You won't leave, so I might as well. I'm done with you Gabriel. You've hurt me so much. We're finished!"

I listened, stunned out of my mind, panic engulfing me and at the same time, planning to get on my knees and beg. But the next words uttered out of her mouth, knocked me like a skittle.

"I've taken Wayne up on his offer and I'm moving in with him. He's picking me and the kids up shortly. I'll move the rest of my things during the week. You can keep the house, the furniture and ...whatever."

I slowly emerged from my state of shock and went into begging mode. "Angelina, please don't go! I promise to be good and to do everything to keep the peace, until I move out. The girls need stability and shouldn't be moved into some ...some bachelor pad, where I wouldn't be able to see them unless I call first and all that crap. Don't deprive me of my girls, okay? Please? I'll move very soon. I've always been good to you, Angel. True, I fucked up and I am paying. Lily - it's nothing. Like Wayne, she's just...well...understanding, and I guess there's - I don't know..." I shook my head. "Look there's an apartment not far from here that I've been eyeing. I need a month then I'm gone. Can you give me a month?"

She stopped packing and sat on the bed. For a while she stared silently at the carpet.

"Huh?"

Then she slowly nodded.

I exhaled and sat next to her. "I'm sorry for everything," I said. "I liked having you in my arms today, even if it was for a brief period. I feel so sad that this had to happen."

She managed a sad short teary smile. "It shouldn't have happened," she said softly. "I got carried away, but..." We were interrupted by Wayne's arrival.

Fuck! Why did that asshole have to show up every time I talk to my wife.

Angel appeared nervous, as if she was hesitant to tell him she changed her mind, so I decided to brainwash her a little.

"Look Angel, you need to tell him that you can't do it, cos you've got kids and they need stability. Their needs need to take precedence over Stickler's disappointment. If he cares for you, he will understand. Has he got kids?"

She shook her head from side-to-side.

"Then he will never understand when Sydney topples his CD collection or ...or marks his leather lounge suite with chocolate hands. And Indiana, you know how she likes to throw her toys around. Living with him - they have to really behave. You want that? You wanna break their spirit, huh?"

She shook her head from side-to-side.

"Then tell him."

Nodding, she went out to meet him and I remained where I was. Then I heard them arguing.

"How can you change your mind like that, Angelina? You give him too many chances. When are you going to learn about him?"

Aw fuck off Stickler! The bastard was lucky I was in hot water with Angel or I'd have gone over and kicked the shit out of him. God knows I was itching to.
