Editorial Review

About the Author

Beginning as a know-nothing college student with no career expertise, but determined to land with a frontline employer after graduation, S. A. Eberwein discovered the keys to job search success. Mastering resume-writing, interviewing, and, ultimately, carrying out a productive job search after seeking out guidance from individuals in the upper echelon of the workforce, he parlayed his university degree into a highly sought-after investment banking position with an eminent, large-scale investment bank in New York City. After plying his trade in the hustle and bustle of Manhattan for five years, he moved back to his hometown of Dallas, Texas, where he currently resides with his wife and two small children. Cash Your Investment is his first book.
